The John Ward Trio

The John Ward Trio comprises John, his wife Lynne and Les Woodley. Their powerful 3-part harmonies blend to give a richer life to John's original songs and to his traditional repertoire. Accompanied by guitar, double bass, mandolin, harmonica, whistles and bodhran, and with the familiar, relaxed banter, stories and humour, the Trio delights folk club and festival audiences around the country.

Sue Graves & Hector Gilchrist

Sue Graves is a Surrey based folk singer who sings a mixture of contemporary and traditional songs, accompanying herself on guitar and ukulele. She is a truly remarkable singer and performer with a diverse range of material.

Hector has sung from an early age, and has a wide range of traditional and contemporary material. He is acknowledged as a fine and sensitive interpreter of the Songs of Burns. Together they make a fine paring.
